PARISH SERVICE FLAG

HAS EIGHTEEN STARS. Blessed at St. Joseph's Church After Patriotic Address by Rev. Joseph H King, Formerly of Norwich.

Military vespers were held at Joseph's church Sunday evening when the service flag of San Jose council, No. 14, K. of C., was blessed. Rev. Joseph H. King of Torrington, a native of Norwich, delivered a patri-otic sermon. American flags were dis-

ed in the church. The Knights of Columbus assembled at their rooms and marched in a body to the church, where they occupied special pews. Rev. T. F. Bannon officiated at the vesper service, blessing the service flag and a large American flag. Rev. J. H. King then delivered his sermon, after which the Star Spanded Starter and the sermon of the sermon of the sermon of the service flag the service fla gled Banner was sung by the choir, the Monday in Putnam proved to b omething of a mixture of the varying onditions that obtain on Sundays, leholidays and the routine bus day. It wasn't just like any other day hat can be recalled.

This made life very dull and quiet in the business sections of the city. Some of the mills, including the Manhasett Putnam Worsted and Waterman Wor. sted were running, these doing gov-ernment work, while others were as still as upon the Sabbath. The schools were in session and passenger trains were running on their usual week day schedules. On the other hand, offices were closed, and, again, the theaters were open. On the

I. Copeland Mansfield,

An indication of the action to be taken by the district board in the case of registrants married since May 18 of last year was shown Monday, when some appeal cases of the same of the sam chandise. The order bore the signa-ture of Louis Cloutier, Francis' father Young Cloutier previously had obtain nam, 5; Archie J. Ramsey, Westford, 4; Samuel A. Morse, Eagleville, 1; Al-ed goods legitimately at the Seder fred J. Lucier, Putnam, 1; Henry Te-store with such orders. He was therefore outfitted with a suit, a mackinaw and a pair of fur gloves. The suit was left at the store for some alterations, and meantime a suspicion arose as to the genuineness of the order. Inquiry established the fact that it was a forgery, in so far as the elder Cloutier's signature was concerned.
